

Grade Reporting

Four County Area Vocational Cooperative programs utilize a competency-based curriculum. This type of instruction utilizes continuous instruction and evaluation throughout the duration of the one semester or one year program. Evaluation of students will be done through various methods developed by the instructor. Possible methods may include: hands-on demonstrations, oral testing, written testing, theory, skill attainment, etc...

Midterms and final grades are established by each home school. Below are the FCAVC grading scales. (Note: Cosmetology's is slightly different as required by state regulations.)
